

RACE TO THE STONES 2025

JustGiving™ Pain Into Power

On Saturday 12th July 2025 Jordan Sahota is taking on the ultimate challenge - running the 100k ultramarathon to raise funds for The Maggie Oliver Foundation, a charity dedicated to supporting survivors of abuse and giving them a voice.

Every mile Jordan runs is for those who've had to walk a much harder path.

With your help, we can raise awareness, offer hope, and provide support to those who need it most.

Your donation, big or small will help change lives.

Thank you!

Maggie
